Stewards Of The Gospel

"The important thing in evangelising is not to effortfully set out to try to convert someone, but to live one's faith as a Catholic attractively. It is important to trust that God is working".

IN TODAY'S GOSPEL

Shortly before his death, Jesus gave his disciples, and us, a new commandment: 'A new commandment: I give to you, that you love one another; even as I have loved you, that you also love one another'. To be a disciple is to be called to a life of love. And in particular to agape love, which is rooted in self-sacrifice, in loving without thought of return, freely and unconditionally. Christian love is probably both the most important of all the Christian virtues and the hardest to achieve. We may have faith, we may have hope, but we don't always have love.

Here's the thing about love: we all want to be loved – more than anything else in the world we crave love. The Greek philosopher Aristotle said: 'No one would choose a friendless existence on condition of having all the other things in the world'. In other words, we were created to receive love and to give love. None of us is an island; none of us is without the capacity to love and be loved. Love, however, is rather like mercy: to show mercy, we must first receive mercy; to love, we must first know we are loved. So we see that to be a Christian is to be called to live a life of love. But how far short we fall. None of us loves as we should love. Our hearts incline so easily to malice, envy, jealousy and rage. How can this be when we are called to love? We cannot love with our old hearts – they are callous and hard. No, a new commandment requires a new heart: the heart of the new creation, the heart of Christ.

This new heart of love is a blessing of the Spirit which we receive when we call upon God's help, grace and strength to love in those situations where we find it hard to love, to forgive where we find it impossible to forgive and to show mercy where we, left to our own devices, are devoid of mercy.

This kind of love, agape love, is the blessing and fruit of the Spirit, and to this we are called and for this we receive every spiritual blessing and grace. Lord God, please give me the grace and strength to love, forgive and show mercy in those situations where in my own strength I find it impossible to do so.

Welcome to all our parishioners to our Sunday liturgy.

In today's Gospel Jesus asks Peter to put out into the deep and lower the nets for a catch. For Peter that instruction did not make sense. Peter made the point that he had been out all night and caught nothing. But Peter did as Jesus requested and had a big catch of fish.

Today our world is in disarray because people do not obey God's teaching. Obedience to God is the key to lasting peace and real prosperity in the world. People have forgotten the

One who loves them. They have walked away. People have no time for Jesus and that sadly is their choice. We all have to stand before him. For us will it be as a stranger or a loving friend?

Jesus said to Peter three times "Do you love me?" and Peter said "yes you know I love you". There is always time to return to Jesus with those words of Peter to Jesus through his Sacrament of mercy and love but don't put it off. Make time for prayer especially the Rosary. Reflect on the word of God. Jesus told Peter "Do not be afraid". Let us pray that the Lord may give us the courage and strength to obey his teaching and commands. Let us pray that we have the courage to proclaim the truth of Christ's teaching with firm conviction, boldness and courage and bring people to a living and dynamic faith that leads to true freedom and fullness of life.

I wish you all a happy Sunday with your families .

We have a few pictures from the archives which we will share with you over the coming weeks. In the meantime we start with this pic noting that 500 people including ministers of other denominations prayed in our partly finished shell of a church. We think this was in the mid 1960s. Pope on Twitter

God proposes Himself, He never imposes Himself; He enlightens us, but never blinds us.

Mary, Virgin of #Fatima, we are certain that each one of us is precious in your eyes and that nothing in our hearts has estranged you. Guard our life with your embrace, guide us all on the path to holiness.

On this World Day of Prayer for Vocations, let us join in prayer and ask the Lord to help us discover his plan of love for our lives, and to grant us the courage to walk in the path that, from the beginning, he has chosen for each of us.

God has placed this plan in our hearts and in all creation: to love Him, our brothers and sisters, and the whole world, and to find true happiness in this love.

Altar Servers -

THIS IS URGENT - VERY URGENT

Over the years our parish has been blessed with wonderful, committed Altar Servers. Serving at the Altar is not just a hobby that we do each week. It is part of who we are - following Jesus Christ. Serving at the Altar is a privilege - something we do out of love for him. Let others see what a difference our faith makes to our lives. As Altar Servers let us be a people of faith and strong followers of Jesus, let us respond generously to God's call. We require more Altar Servers at each Mass. Please contact Fr. Leslie.

IN THE GOSPEL TODAY

Jesus gives his disciples a new commandment. They must love one another as he has loved them. Jesus wants us to do this too.

A PRAYER TO SAY

Dear Jesus, you teach us that loving other people makes our world a happy place. Help me to make the world a happy place by sharing your love with everyone I meet. Amen.
