REJOICE! TODAY IS EASTER SUNDAY

A big Easter welcome to all our parishioners. We look forward to seeing more and more of our parish family returning. If you are able to get out and about during the week, then you should come back at the weekend and join us all. Our church is safe and for those who are vulnerable or housebound watching live streaming of Mass is good, but especially at this time of year we should try and re-join us physically. Our Holy Week services, although curtailed, were well attended and very prayerful. It was a great time to unite all our anxiety, our fear, loneliness, lack of seeing our families and friends up to Jesus on the cross for sorrow for our sins, our lack of faith and trust in Him as we now celebrate his Resurrection and for us a new way of truly loving our Lord as we continue on our journey of life.

We pray for those from our community who are fearful of going out, for those who have lost a loved one, and all who have died. May they Rest in Peace and Rise in Glory.

Today we gather together to commemorate that holy day when the Lord rose from the dead. In today's gospel we hear how the women were surprised to find Jesus had risen from the dead. Jesus said "I am the resurrection. Anyone who believes in me even though that person dies, he will live, and anyone who lives and believes in me will never die". God has promised to reward us for our belief in Him. He will never disappoint those who are repentant, faithful, obedient, humble, and hopeful. Indeed, our God is a God of surprises. He will continue to intervene suddenly and mysteriously, totally and unexpectedly even in the midst of our anxieties, fears, confusion, despair and suffering. Sometimes when we least expect it. He will surprise us. He will fill our lives with peace and newness of life.

I wish you all a very happy Easter.

Fr. Leslie

Thank you.

Mass Intentions

This season of Lent is a good time to ask to have a Mass said for your loved ones who have died or who are sick or private intentions.

Stewards

Now that we have returned to having public Masses, we will undoubtedly need more volunteers to steward the people attending Mass. Please do give it a thought. It's not a big task - you would be needed to take contact details, show people to their seat, and assist in bringing people up for Holy Communion at a bench at a time so that there is no overcrowding in the aisle. Please please help if you can.

Confessions

On Request (During the COVID 19 Virus)

Weekday Masses

During the week our Church will be open for private prayer from 10.00 a.m. until 12.00 midday. If you are able, this will be an opportunity to visit Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament and find solace and peace from all that we have and going through these past few months. In particular, we pray for many grieving families who have lost a loved one from COVID-19.

During the week Holy Mass is said privately. If you wish Mass to be offered for a loved one/intention, please put them through the presbytery letter box. On Sunday Mass is celebrated for all our parishioners living and dead.

Pope on Twitter

The process of conversion always entails the cross. There is no holiness without sacrifice and without a spiritual battle

Christ's Cross is like a beacon that indicates the port to ships that are still afloat on stormy seas. It is the sign of the hope that does not disappoint. And it tells us that not even one tear, not one sigh is lost in God's saving plan.

Along the daily way of the cross, we meet the faces of so many brothers and sisters in difficulty: let us not pass by, let us allow our hearts to be moved with compassion, and let us draw near.

Jesus was lifted up on the cross to descend into our suffering, to plumb the depths of our human experience, to draw near to us and not abandon us in our suffering and our death. To redeem us, to save us.

Streaming of Mass

If you are watching Mass streamed from a Catholic Church, please observe the following:

Do not watch it in bed eating your breakfast (unless you have to be in bed). Do not watch the mass drinking tea/coffee. The Mass is sacred and through the media this great mystery is happening in your home. We should behave as if we are in church.

Sacrament of Reconciliation (confession)

By appointment or before Mass on request.
