I WILL PRAISE YOU, LORD, IN THE ASSEMBLY OF YOUR PEOPLE

Welcome to all our parishioners - to those present and to those who are unable to be with us today. We look forward to the day when we can be together as a family. In your charity, please say a prayer for all those whose anniversaries are at this time and the priests of our diocese. In the Book of Maccabees "It is a holy and wholesome thought to pray for our dead that they may be released from their sins". On Thursday of this week, the feast of St. John Payne, we pray for all our young people at St. John Payne school that they may grow in wisdom and love of God. Also this week we celebrate the feast of the English Martyrs who laid down their lives for their Catholic faith. This could be an opportunity to pray for the courage to live that faith in word and good deeds in our everyday lives.

In today's Gospel from John there is a lovely verse "Make your home in me as I make mine in you. As a branch cannot bear fruit all by itself but must remain part of the vine, neither can you unless you remain in me". Perhaps we can reflect on our relationship with Jesus in our everyday lives. How often we pray, reflect on the Scriptures and our longing to receive the Lord in the Eucharist into our hearts.

"Make your home in me as I make mine in you". Lord Jesus give us that grace to love you more and more.

I wish you all God's blessing on your families.

Stewards

Now that we have returned to having public Masses, we will undoubtedly need more volunteers to steward the people attending Mass. Please do give it a thought. It's not a big task - you would be needed to take contact details, show people to their seat, and assist in bringing people up for Holy Communion a bench at a time so that there is no overcrowding in the aisle. Please please help if you can.

Aid to Church in Need

From St. Joseph we must learn... Care and responsibility, we must learn to love the child and his mother, to love the sacraments and charity, to love the church and the poor (Pope Francis).

Should you wish to help the Church in Need please contact:

Aid to the Church in Need, 10-14 Benhill Avenue, Sutton, Surrey SM11 4DA.
Tel: 0208 642 8668

A small Direct Debit would be a great help to our suffering Brothers & Sisters.

Reflection from St John Paul II

In the Eucharist we have Jesus, we have his redemptive sacrifice, we have his resurrection, we have the gift of the holy spirit, we have adoration, obedience and love of the Father. Where we to disregard the Eucharist, how could we overcome our own deficiency.

Date For Your Diary

Diocesan pilgrimage to Walsingham will take place virtually on Saturday 29 May - More details nearer the time. It will be live streamed.

Plenary Indulgences For The Year of St. Joseph

All this Year until 8 December 2021. You have the opportunity to commit yourself with prayer and good works, to obtain with the help of St. Joseph, head of the heavenly family of Nazareth, comfort and relief from serious human and social tribulations that today affect our world. You can gain a plenary indulgence in the usual conditions i.e. sacramental confession, Holy Communion and a prayer for the Holy Fathers intention. You can do this if you meditate for 30 minutes on the Our Father or a retreat of at least one day that includes a meditation on St. Joseph. St. Joseph invites us to rediscover the filial relationship with the Father.

St. Joseph is the guardian of the Holy Family – may this inspire enthuse and encourage all families to live with the same 'intimate communion' love and prayer, by praying the Holy Rosary in families and engaged couples.

MISSIO

I have had a notification from MISSIO that, in 2020, our parish of St. Joseph the Worker raised £193.00 through our Red Boxes and donations to MISSIO and the Mill Hill Missionaries. The missionaries and the communities they serve have asked to pass on their thanks for your prayers and generous donations. More information, including how to donate online, is available on the website missio.org.uk

Thank you for your support. Clare Barton.

Parish Sunday Afternoon

Rosary Group

The group meets at 4.30 p.m. online, every Sunday, for about 30-40 minutes to say one set of the Mysteries of the Rosary (5 decades each week) and also to pray for the parish and any specific intentions. Contact Tyrone tyronesq@yahoo.co.uk for a link to be sent via email.

Parish Register

Please - whether you are a parishioner of many years or new to our parish (welcome), please visit our website and fill in your name, address and contact details. Also visit our website to request Baptism and First Communion forms. The Parish will find it much easier to communicate with you, and you with it, if you are registered. And of course, in these Covid times, we have to take bookings for Mass to ensure that we adhere to the restrictions. This process will be much simpler for all if you have already registered.

200 Club

The 200 Club has been running in our Parish for many years and over that time it has contributed many thousands of pounds to assist with the Parish finances.

It is a relatively painless way of giving, and of course benefits you (hopefully) and the Parish at the same time. All you need to do is to complete a Standing Order form for £2.00 each month and you will be entered into a monthly draw to win cash prizes of up to £50. It's that simple.

Marian will be handing out Standing Order forms at Masses this weekend so please take a moment to take one, complete it and set the process in motion. Cash prizes are just a signature away! What's not to like!

Pope on Twitter

There is no page of the Gospel on which there is no place for us. For us Christians, meditating is a way of coming into contact with Jesus. And in this way, only in this way, can we discover ourselves

In daily life, we can find the Risen One in the faces of our brothers and sisters above all in the poor and those on the fringes. We will be amazed how the greatness of God is revealed in littleness, how his beauty shines forth in the poor and simple.

I am extremely sad over the tragedy that has once again taken place in the Mediterranean. 130 migrants died in the sea. They are people. They are human beings. Let us pray for these brothers and sisters, and for all those who continue to die in these tragic crossings.

As the Good Shepherd, Jesus consoles his shepherds. If you remain close to the Lord, to the bishop, among yourselves, and to the people of God; if you maintain God's style - nearness, compassion and tenderness - you need not be afraid: everything will go well

Finance News

For the week ending 25 April you gave £118.75 of which £6.00 was through Gift Aid.

Second Collection for Vocations raised £103.96

Thank you and God Bless.

Standing Orders

These represent the most efficient method for you to support our Parish. Please complete a Standing Order form which can be found at the back of the church, and send it to your bank. If you are a tax payer, please do think about Gift Aiding your donation, which benefits the church by an extra 25% of your giving, at no cost whatsoever to yourselves.
