REFLECTION

This weekend brings together two of the most beautiful celebrations in the Church's calendar: All Saints and All Souls.

On All Saints' Day, we rejoice in the countless men and women who have reached heaven. Some are famous, their names written in the Church's calendar, but most are known to God alone. They remind us that holiness is not reserved for a select few. Heaven is our destination too, and sainthood is what each of us is called to.

All Souls' Day, however, has a different character. When someone we love dies, there is often a sense of helplessness. We can no longer pick up the telephone, visit them, care for them or do the little things which once expressed our affection. But our faith tells us that there is still something important that we can do for them. We can pray for them.

This is one of the great consolations of our faith. We believe that those who die in God's friendship, but who are not yet ready to enter the fullness of his presence, undergo a final purification which we call purgatory. It is not a second chance, nor is it a punishment without hope. It is the final work of God's mercy, preparing a soul for the perfect happiness of heaven.

And because we remain united in Christ, our prayers can help them. We can have Mass offered for them, visit their graves, gain indulgences for them, or simply remember them in our daily prayers. Even that little prayer, 'Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them', is a beautiful act of love.

I would particularly encourage you to have Masses offered for your deceased loved ones. There is no greater prayer we can offer than the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, in which Christ's own sacrifice is made present upon the altar. As a parish family will pray together throughout the month of November for all our dearly departed who are on our November Dead List, and whose names are placed before the altar.

So, during this month of November, do not simply remember your dead. Pray for them. It is one of the greatest acts of charity we can offer, and perhaps the most beautiful way of saying that our love for them continues.

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace. Amen.

Wishing you and your loved ones a blessed week

Fr Gary

Foodbank Collection

Our monthly foodbank collection in support of Hutton Community Food Hub takes place this weekend Saturday, 31st October and Sunday, 1st November 2026, at St Joseph's. Please bring along tinned and packet items, toiletries, nappies and toilet rolls, to support those in need in Hutton. Thank you.

Parish Social Media

Did you know that St Joseph's has a presence on Facebook and Instagram? Look up St Joseph the Worker, Hutton, on Facebook and 'huttoncatholics' on Instagram.

All Souls

All Souls is Monday 2nd November, and we will have a Mass at 9.15 at Hutton and a Mass at 12.30 at Ingatestone, as well as a Mass at 7.30pm at Hutton which will be celebrated in Latin. All are invited.

November Dead List

November Dead List envelopes are available at the back of the church. The month of November is traditionally dedicated in a particular way to the Holy Souls. We remember our loved ones and those who have nobody to pray for them. If you would like a loved one to be prayed for, then please place their names (and any donation you wish to make) in one of the November envelopes. We will pray for them at our Masses and in our devotions throughout the month of November.

Grave Blessings

Since it is customary to remember our deceased loved ones in a special way in November, Fr Gary will be blessing graves on 7th November. He will be at Ingatestone and Fryerning Cemetery at 11am and Woodman Road Cemetery at 12.15. There will be some prayers for the dead, and any graves of loved ones will be blessed.

CANONESSES OF THE HOLY SEPULCHRE

We are celebrating the Annual Mass for our deceased relatives and friends, in particular those buried in our cemetery, on Saturday 7th November 2026 at 2pm at New Hall in the School Chapel. The Mass will be followed by visits to the cemetery for those who wish, and tea. All welcome. For purposes of catering and printing, please let us know if you will be with us by emailing crssuk@canonesses.co.uk. Also, a copy of the item is attached to this email.

Missio Red Boxes

Please would everyone who has a Missio red box leave it at the back of the church by the end of November so that I can arrange for it to be counted and returned. Please make sure that your red box is clearly labelled with your name and address.

If anyone who does not have a Missio red box would like one, please speak to me. Missio is the Pope's charity for world mission, helping local missionaries to work alongside global communities that are poor or in need. Visit missio.org.uk to find out more or to donate online.

Alpha 2026

Please remember the participants and leaders of Alpha in your daily prayers: 'Heavenly Father, I pray for my friends, my parish community and for Alpha. Lord, let your kingdom come and your will be done. Holy Spirit come fill me today that I might share the good news of Jesus to those around me. Amen.'

PARISH NOTICES

HUTTON:

New Book of Remembrance at St Joseph's

Each year, during November, we place our Book of Remembrance before the altar. Through your generosity, we shall shortly be replacing the Book of Remembrance at St Joseph's, in which we commemorate the anniversaries of our departed loved ones and remember them in our prayers. As we approach November, the month in which the Church traditionally prays in a particular way for the Holy Souls, I would like to invite parishioners to include, in their November Dead List envelopes, the full names and anniversaries of death (day, month and year) of any close family members, friends or loved ones whom they would like to have inscribed in the new book. Mandy, one of our parishioners and an accomplished calligrapher, has very kindly offered to undertake the beautiful work of entering the names by hand. It is a fitting way to ensure that those whom we have loved and lost continue to be remembered in the prayers of our parish community for generations to come. As the Church reminds us, praying for the dead is one of the spiritual works of mercy, and a beautiful expression of our faith in the Resurrection.

Christmas Party - 5th December

INGATESTONE:

Ingatestone Hall Christmas Wreath Making Event - 23rd November to 4th December 2026

This is an opportunity for a guided wreath making class to be enjoyed with mulled wine and delicious canapés in the beautiful setting of Ingatestone Hall. The cost £95pp and groups are limited to 14 people per session. Visit: Online Box Office: www.eventbrite.com/e/christmas-wreath-making-and-canapes-at-ingatestone-hall-2311-0312-tickets-1999018241372?aff=oddtcreator for more information.

Ingatestone Parish Christmas Meal – Monday 14 December

Our parish Christmas meal will take place at The Viper, Fryerning, on Monday 14 December at 7pm. This lovely local pub promises a wonderfully festive atmosphere! Places are limited, so please add your name to the sign-up sheet at the back of the church by 31 October. A sample menu is available, with the final menu expected in mid-November. For further information, please contact Jacinta on 07949 270902.

Cards and Gifts: The Repository is open before and after mass every Saturday evening and Sunday morning. We have a wide range of cards including mass cards, baptism, FHC and confirmation cards available, plus some lovely handmade cross-stitch cards.

Parish Registration: If you are new to the parish and would like to register, the Parish Registration forms are available in the Church porch, or you can register on the website. If you are a parishioner at Ingatestone then please email the Parish Office.

REGULAR NOTICES

Keep a Flame Burning (Ex. 27:19-20) - Our sanctuary lamp always burns to honour Christ and His presence in the Blessed Sacrament. It represents Our Lord among His people, and the fulfilment of His promise that He will be with us always. Would you like to sponsor a light in memory of a loved one or for a specific intention? Please contact Ngozi who will make a note of the date.

This week the sanctuary lamp burns for Onyike Kenneth Okoro R.I.P

Tea and Coffee

Tea and coffee are available after both the 9am at Ingatestone and the 10.30am Mass at Hutton. Refreshments are also served after the Saturday evening Mass on the first Saturday of the month.

There will be refreshments after the 10.30 Mass, and everyone is welcome. Please sign up on the list at the back of the church to help. New volunteers are always welcome. You only have to provide the milk, and full instructions are given.

200 Club Hutton: There are cash prizes to be won through our popular 200 club. For just £2 per entry, you could be eligible to win prizes of £50, £30 or £20 each month. Half the proceeds go to boost parish funds. Please complete a 200 Club standing order form and hand it to Marian Anderson or Fr Gary.

Giving: A huge thank you for your continued support. By far the best way for us is standing orders which enable to budget more effectively. It is also possible to give via the card machine (in the church porch) or online. Donations can be made to specific projects. To set up a standing order please contact the parish office or via on-line banking.

Anointing of the Sick: If you know of someone in the parish who is very ill, please contact Fr Gary to arrange a visit. Please pray for all the sick people of our parish.

Funerals: To book a funeral, please contact the Parish Office.

Hall Hire: The Parish Hall of St Joseph the Worker is available for hire, please contact the Parish Office.
