Stewards Of the Gospel

"The important thing in evangelising is not to effortfully set out to try to convert someone, but to live one's faith as a Catholic attractively. It is important to trust that God is working".

Welcome to our parish news of St. Joseph the Worker 20 April 2025

Alleluia! He is Risen!

Today we rejoice in the greatest victory ever known: Christ's triumph over sin and death. The tomb is empty, the stone is rolled away, and the light of the Resurrection shines into every corner of our lives.

Easter is not only a moment in history; it is a living promise. Christ's Resurrection means that death does not have the final word, and no darkness in our lives is beyond the reach of God's love. In every hardship, in every season of waiting or loss, Easter reminds us that death does not have the final word.

As we gather in joy and celebration, may we let the truth of Easter fill our hearts: that in Christ, we are made new. Let us carry the light of the Risen Lord into our homes, our families, and our world, especially to those still walking in shadows.

This Easter, may we not just proclaim, 'He is risen,' but live as people who believe it — with hearts full of peace, joy, and the quiet strength that comes from knowing God has already conquered all.

Wishing you and your loved ones a blessed and joyful Easter.

Fr. Gary

Easter Collections

Priests in our diocese do not receive a salary and have no pension, which means that, although basic expenses are covered, they rely upon the generosity of the people they serve. Together, the Christmas and Easter collections form a major part of a priest's income for the year and also determine his ability to put something aside for his retirement or in the event of sickness. The Easter offertory collection is your gift to your priest. Thank you for your continued love and support of the work of our parish.

Easter and Standing Orders

The diocese does not permit any part of the donations of those who give by standing order to go towards the upkeep of clergy for Christmas and Easter. If you give by standing order, you might consider giving an additional donation for the support of your priest. It is also possible to make an online donation via the QR code on the newsletter or bank transfer. Please use the parish bank details and mark the reference as 'Easter.' Thank you.

We all have the opportunity to serve at our parish of St. Joseph in so many ways. There are many ministers, choir and music, altar serving, readers, eucharistic ministers, (especially to bring Holy Communion to the sick), church cleaners, hospitality and welcome refreshment team.

Our sanctuary always burns to honour Christ and His presence in the Blessed Sacrament. It represents Our Lord among His people, and the fulfilment of His promise that He will be with us always. Would you like to sponsor a light in memory of a loved one or for a specific intention? Please contact Ngozi who will make a note of the date.

This week, the sanctuary lamp burns for the good of our parish community.

Mass intentions

Please don't forget to have a Mass said for the response of the soul of a family member, friends or someone who is sick or for a private intention. One day we will need people to pray for us. "Ask a holy priest to pray for the dead that they may be released from their sins" (from book of Maccabees). The celebration of Mass is the most powerful prayer as we represent the earth and resurrection of Jesus.

Adoration and Confessions

Saturday 10.30 - 11.15 a.m. or on request before Mass or any other time.

Sick parishioners

Please pray for our sick parishioners and those in care homes.
