"The important thing in evangelising is not to effortfully set out to try to convert someone, but to live one's faith as a Catholic attractively. It is important to trust that God is working".

In Today's Gospel

In a village in Galilee we encounter John's 'sign theology'. As he puts it so simply and beautifully: 'This, the first of his signs, Jesus did at Cana in Galilee'. The question, as always with these signs, is: 'What does this sign mean?' Like all the signs the meaning is profound and many-faceted. St. Thomas More said that the Scriptures are such that a mouse could put his tiny foot in them and an elephant wade in their deep waters!

What are you – a mouse or an elephant? Don't answer that!

The changing of water into wine is many people's favourite miracle. A wedding in first-century Palestine was a joyous affair with plenty of food and wine, and lasted a whole week. Quite some party, that is for sure! Running out of wine was clearly socially embarrassing for the couple but a sign perhaps of how much people were enjoying themselves. The water that was changed into wine was not ordinary water – it was water that had been blessed for ceremonial washing. This special water was not changed into vin ordinaire, as the French say, but top-notch wine. Scholars inform us that as a result of this miracle there were now six jars each holding up to 25 gallons of quality wine! What a miracle!! Indeed, it dumbfounded the guests.

Believer or unbeliever, we all understand the message a superabundance of wine gives – it conveys joy and celebration. In Israel an abundance of wine was a prophetic turn of speech for the ushering in of the new Messianic Age. There is also a passage in the non-canonical 2 Baruch 29 which echoes this sentiment: 'on each vine there shall be a thousand branches, and each branch shall bear a thousand clusters and each grape produce a cor [120 gallons of wine]...because these are they who have come to the consummation of time.' For John the miracle was a sign of the Messianic Age, the passing from the old to the new. The wedding feast was a sign of the heavenly banquet to which we are all invited by virtue of our baptism. The bridegroom at this wedding is Jesus. The joy of the heavenly banquet would come after the 'hour' of Jesus' suffering: the cross, his death, his glory.

Lord, you have won for us the gift of eternal life, the joy of heaven and the promise of sharing in God's nature.

Church Cleaning

Church cleaning takes place every Friday after morning Mass. All are welcome to come and help.

Welcome to all our parishioners and visitors. The season of Lent begins on 6 March. Now is the time to make preparation for this great season.

In the season after Christmas we keep in mind that Jesus did not just become flesh and live a quiet life. No! He became flesh and dwelt among us. He was a man for the people. This Word, Jesus became flesh and dwelt among us and made the Father known to us as we read "No one has ever seen God. It is the only Son, the Son who is nearest to the Father's heart, who has made him known".

As we begin a New Year let us ask ourselves:

How can I make Jesus known to my family?

How can I tell them that Jesus is always with us?

Remember Jesus spent 30 years with Mary and Joseph. The family is a sacred place. Just as Jesus was taught by Mary and Joseph, so for us there is all the more responsibility to help our children and ourselves to meet the person of Jesus, a real friend on our Journey of Life.

"May the Word of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, give you a spirit of wisdom, and perception of what is revealed, to bring you to full knowledge of Him. May He enlighten the eyes of your mind so that you can see what hope His call holds for you, what rich glories He has promised the Saints will inherit.

Have a great day with your families and a wonderful week.

A Message From Our Bishop

"With all my heart, I urge any survivor of abuse to speak out."

On the weekend that Archbishop Oscar Romero was made a saint, in company with Pope Paul VI and others, Bishop Alan's pastoral letter to the parishes highlighted the example both men showed and how it speaks to us today

Bishop Alan wrote: despite threats, Archbishop Romero, who was assassinated in 1980, had become an outspoken voice for the poor in defence of truth and justice. His witness is a model for each of us, and in a particular way for bishops. As he visited the towns and villages of El Salvador, and saw the violence against the people, Romero said "the ones who have a voice must speak for those who are voiceless". How true this is for children and vulnerable adults, yet in recent months we have been shocked and saddened by the example of bishops who have covered up the truth and therefore allowed injustice to flourish. We have heard stories of survivors of sexual abuse whose most basic rights have been violated by Catholic clergy or other members of the church. The lives of survivors have been violated and in some cases destroyed by the crimes of the abusers. Those in authority in the church have often failed to act.

In Brentwood Diocese, the safeguarding of children and vulnerable adults has developed significantly over the last 20 years, and now involves many staff and volunteers at Diocesan and parish level, and in our schools. Our Diocesan safeguarding commission includes representatives from the Metropolitan Police, the legal profession and social workers, together with clergy and lay people who have extensive experience in education and youth ministry.

With all my heart I urge any survivor of abuse to speak out. I know that this can be very difficult, and so I promise, as your bishop, that every allegation of abuse will be met with the response that is both pastoral and professional. I thank our parish safeguarding representatives for the work that they do, and I affirm that safeguarding must be the concern of all of us who are able to give a "voice to the voiceless". It is one of the ways in which, in the words of Pope Paul VI, we "proclaim the gospel by our witness".

Bishop Alan adds that during their recent visit to Rome, the bishops conference decided to commission an independent and comprehensive review of safeguarding structures that currently operate within the Catholic Church of England and Wales. Our children and vulnerable adults must be safe in the Church of Christ. We need to respond to survivors as we heed the words of Pope Francis – no effort must be spared to create a culture able to prevent such situations from happening.

Yours in Christ and Mary

Alan Williams Bishop of Brentwood

Adoration Of The Blessed Sacrament

Every Friday afternoon there will be Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament from 3.00 p.m. until 4.00 p.m. We want to encourage our parishioners to discover the silence of God's presence. Also to encourage parents to come and spend a few quiet moments before they pick up their children from school. However just reflect that when we pray we usually ask God's help. But sometimes it's important just to be with God and be aware of God's wonder, to allow the mystery of His being to touch us. When we do this we find ourselves adoring him.

BCCS Anniversary Charity Ball

The Sacraments

In the New Year we ask the Grace of God to help us to reflect on the past and show us the way forward. God's Word is at the heart and at the root of history. The Word is Jesus and He became flesh. We pray to see the presence of Christ in each one of us and in our troubled and confused world.

May I suggest that we reflect this year on the help that we have to recognise the above, namely the Sacraments? Perhaps as a family we can make part of our prayer once a week to recite and reflect on our Baptismal Promises; to go to confession at least once a month; to receive Jesus in the Eucharist sometime during the week; if we know of anyone who is really sick then invite them to receive the Sacrament of the sick; to renew marriage vows; and have a quiet weekend away once a year.

Sacraments are given to us to help us on our Journey of Life and to keep us close to Jesus. And as we approach World Youth Day, pray for our young people who will be going to South America and those who are at home.

Feast Days

ST. FRANCIS DE SALES

Francis de Sales was beatified in 1661 by Pope Alexander VII, who then canonized him four years later. He was declared a Doctor of the Church by Pope Pius IX in 1877. The Roman Catholic Church celebrates St. Francis de Sales' feast on 24 January, the day of his burial in Annecy in 1624.

ST. AGNES

Agnes of Rome (c. 291 - c. 304) is a virgin martyr, venerated as a saint in the Roman Catholic Church, Eastern Orthodox Church, the Anglican Communion, and Lutheranism. She is one of seven women who, along with the Blessed Virgin, are commemorated by name in the Canon of the Mass. St. Agnes' feast day is 21 January.

FEAST OF THE CONVERSION OF ST. PAUL

The Feast of the Conversion of St. Paul the Apostle is a feast celebrated during the liturgical year on January 25, recounting the conversion. This feast is celebrated in the Roman Catholic, Anglican and Lutheran churches.

Pauline Colman RIP

The Funeral Mass for Pauline Colman will take place on Thursday 24 January at 11.00 a.m. We extend to her family our prayers and sympathy. There will be no morning Mass at 9.15 a.m. that day. May she Rest in Peace and Rise in Glory.

Letter From CAFOD to Our Scouts

Thank you all for your donation of £29.58 which we received on 17 December 2018. It's good to hear that the Porridge Pot is of such good use.

Through your support, many more villages like Longora's will have access to clean drinking water. Clean water has power; it can save lives, grow crops and even resolve conflict. Chris Funnell - Head of Supporter Donations, CAFOD

Votive Lights

Please please be careful when placing votive lights on the stand. Please don't crowd around and please do be careful if you take down some used cartridges. Already we are getting wax on the tiles (which were expensive) despite the white protection cover. Please be careful.

Stewards of the Gospel

We are conducting a small parish survey and The Stewards of the Gospel would like to hear from you.

Do please let the Stewards of the Gospel know your motivations, concerns, fears and hopes for our parish. Please put your thoughts on paper and hand to Fr. Leslie or contact Chris or Mary Brooks.

Brentwood Catholic Children's Society

Children and families are now able to access direct therapeutic support in one of our clinics. Sessions take place after school or at an evening clinic at our counselling suites in Rayleigh. Our highly experienced counsellors provide support directly to the whole family or to children and adolescents on a 1:1 basis. If you are concerned that your child may need someone to talk to, please contact Catherine on cmunns@bccs.org.uk There is a sessional charge, so please enquire.

Let us look at our hands, often so empty of love, and today let us try to think of some gift we can offer freely.

Baptism is the best gift we have received. Through it, we belong to God and we possess the joy of salvation.

Smallness is freedom. One who is small, in the Gospel sense, is unencumbered and free from any urge to show off, and from any claim to success.

The first step in prayer is to be humble, go to the Father and say: "Look at me, I am a sinner." And the Lord listens.

Remember

To have a Mass offered for your loved ones. One day we too will be a Holy Soul depending on others to pray for us. Book of Macabees - "It is a holy and wholesome thought to pray for our dead that they may be loosed from their sins".

DON'T FORGET TO PRAY FOR YOUR PRIESTS WHO HAVE GONE HOME TO ETERNAL LIFE. ALSO YOUR RELATIONS, FRIENDS AND PARISHIONERS.

Sacrament Of Reconciliation (Confessions)

Every Saturday 9.45 a.m. to 10.15 a.m. or by request.

Save The Date

The Bishop will be making his Parish Pastoral Visit on Sunday 22 September 2019. It's a long way off, but is a firm date for your diary.

St. Joseph Friendship Group

This group meets every first and third Friday of the month in the parish hall, from 2.00 p.m. to 4.00 p.m. All are welcome. For more details contact Jan on 01277 200278.

IN THE GOSPEL TODAY

Jesus is invited to a wedding with his mother, Mary, and some of his friends. After a while there is no wine left, so Mary asks Jesus to help. Jesus turns water into wine and everyone is amazed at how good the new wine is.

A PRAYER TO SAY

Dear Jesus, you are so kind and helpful. Help me be kind and helpful to the people I know, so that I can make a difference to their lives. Amen.
