"The important thing in evangelising is not to effortfully set out to try to convert someone, but to live one's faith as a Catholic attractively. It is important to trust that God is working".

Welcome to everyone today and to our Sunday liturgy.

On Easter Day we reflected on how the disciples came to believe in the Resurrection and understand its meaning through scripture. In today's Gospel the message for us is to live and profess our faith in the Risen Lord. We experience in our lives many fears. It is part of our Christian lives. The words of Jesus to his disciples is the same for all of us 'Peace be with you'. We believe in his promise of everlasting presence and greetings of peace in every aspect of our lives both in good times and bad times. So no matter what illness or fears or hardship you have, and whatever situation you are in, bring them today and everyday to the Lord Jesus Christ and pray for healing, strength, endurance, patience and peace.

Do not be unbelieving but believe in his Promise.

Have a great Sunday with your families and a wonderful week.

Easter Season – 1

As we have journeyed this past week through Holy Week and bathed in the light and Joy of The Resurrection of Jesus, may our hearts be purified and renewed by the grace of the Holy Spirit.

Easter Season – 2

In this Easter Season let us pray the Rosary that she will lead us all into the company of her Son. This wonderful prayer is something we can do as family, The family that prays together, stays together.

Breakthrough – Release Date 17 May.

We don't normally go in for film reviews in the newsletter, but Christine and I are in the States at the moment and we have just seen the film "Breakthrough". It's listed as a Christian drama but it is much more than that - it's the most wonderful, moving and uplifting account of a mother's love for her son and her unshakeable faith. Based on true events in Missouri in 2015, it has been turned into a book and now a film. If ever proof were needed of the power of prayer, then this is it! Being America, the movie received a standing ovation from the audience, which I have to say was packed into the cinema. Release date in the UK is 17 May. It's a must see! Ian Restall

Saints Days

ST. CATHERINE OF SIENNA

St. Catherine of Siena was born during the outbreak of the plague in Siena, Italy on March 25, 1347. She was the 25th child born to her mother, although half of her brothers and sisters did not survive childhood. Catherine herself was a twin, but her sister did not survive infancy. Despite Catherine's religious nature, she did not choose to enter a convent and instead she joined the Third Order of St. Dominic, which allowed her to associate with a religious society while living at home.

St. Catherine developed a habit of giving things away and she continually gave away her family's food and clothing to people in need. She never asked permission to give these things away, and she quietly put up with their criticisms.

She often visited hospitals and homes where the poor and sick were found. Her activities quickly attracted followers who helped her in her mission to serve the poor and sick.

St. Catherine was drawn further into the world as she worked, and eventually she began to travel, calling for reform of the Church and for people to confess and to love God totally. She became involved in politics, and was key in working to keep city states loyal to the Pope. She was also credited with helping to start a crusade to the Holy Land. On one occasion, she visited a condemned political prisoner and was credited with saving his soul, which she saw being taken up to heaven at the moment of his death.

She also established a monastery for women in 1377 outside of Siena. She is credited with composing over 400 letters, her Dialogue, which is her definitive work, and her prayers. These works are so influential that St. Catherine would later be declared a Doctor of the Church. She is one of the most influential and popular saints in the Church.

ST. GEORGE

St. George is a highly celebrated saint in both the Western and Eastern Christian churches, and a large number of Patronages of Saint George exist throughout the world.

St. George is the patron saint of England. His cross forms the national flag of England, and features within the Union Flag of the United Kingdom, and other national flags containing the Union Flag, such as those of Australia and New Zealand. By the 14th century, the saint had been declared both the patron saint and the protector of the royal family.

ST. JOSEPH THE WORKER

The feast of St. Joseph the Worker is celebrated on 1 May. Pope Pius XII established this feast day in 1955 to honour St. Joseph and celebrate the Catholic Church's commitment to the dignity of labour. St. Joseph cared for Mary, his wife, and Jesus, his son, through his work as a carpenter, representing the ideal of dignified work and faithful contribution to the common good.

MISSIO Red Boxes

The MISSIO red boxes that were left at the back of the church during March have now been emptied and counted. Please collect your empty box from the back of the church.

Thank you for your support.

If anyone who does not have a Missio Red Box would like one, please speak to me. Missio is the Pope's personal charity and the Church's official charity for overseas mission in the developing world. Clare Barton.

Divine Mercy Sunday - Today

Sunday 28 April is Divine Mercy Sunday. At 3.00 p.m. there will be Divine Mercy Prayers, Adoration and Benediction.

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament

Fridays from 3.00 P.M. to 4.00 P.M. We encourage our parents, parishioners and children to come and visit Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament.

Pope Francis has said "if we are to adore the Godhead eternally, we ought to prepare for that occasion by coming to visit Jesus in the Eucharist".

Pope Francis also says "we are indebted to God because none of us are able to love without the Grace of God. None of us loves God as he has loved us; it is enough to place yourselves before a crucifix to grasp the disparity. He has loved us, and he always loves us first".

We are invited to pray "Lord even the most Holy among us do not cease to be debtors to you. O Father, have mercy on us.

May the proclamation of the Lord's Resurrection sustain our hope and transform it into concrete acts of charity. #Easter

Today, too, let us join in prayer with the Christian community of Sri Lanka, which was struck by terrible violence on Easter Sunday. We entrust to the risen Lord the victims, the wounded and all the suffering. #PrayForSriLanka

The resurrection of Christ is the true hope of the world. Happy #Easter!

Let us welcome Christ's victory over sin and death into our lives. In this way, we will draw His transforming power upon all creation as well.

Altar Servers – THIS IS URGENT

Over the years our parish has been blessed with wonderful, committed Altar Servers. Serving at the Altar is not just a hobby that we do each week. It is part of who we are – following Jesus Christ. Serving at the Altar is a privilege – something we do out of love for him. Let others see what a difference our faith makes to our lives. As Altar Servers let us be a people of faith and strong followers of Jesus, let us respond generously to God's call. We require more Altar Servers at each Mass. Please contact Fr. Leslie.

Laughter

People are funny: they want the front of the bus, the middle of the road, and the back of the church.

Children's corner

Welcome to children's corner.

Welcome to our children's corner. We invite parents and children to say this prayer together. God of mercy and forgiveness, you ask us to listen to your son, Jesus Christ. Open our ears to hear your word and fill our hearts with your love so that we may change our lives and the lives of others. Amen

IN THE GOSPEL TODAY

On the Sunday after Jesus died all of his friends, except for Thomas, meet together in a room. They lock the door because they are frightened. Suddenly Jesus appears in the room and says: "Peace be with you". Later, when the disciples tell Thomas about what has happened, he doesn't believe them. Jesus comes to see Thomas a week later. Jesus helps Thomas to understand that he really is alive.

A PRAYER TO SAY

Dear Jesus, help me to share the gift of peace. Amen.
