"The important thing in evangelising is not to effortfully set out to try to convert someone, but to live one's faith as a Catholic attractively. It is important to trust that God is working".

Mass Intentions

Over the years the number of people asking for a Mass for a deceased family member, friend or intention has decreased. Each one of us will be in need of prayers when we leave this world. Our Mass, the sacrifice of our Redeemer on Calvary, is the greatest and most powerful prayer to help us on our journey into God's presence. In the book of Maccabees "It is a Holy and wholesome thought to pray for our dead that they may be loosed from their sins". Please do give this some serious thought.

ALSO DON'T FORGET TO PRAY FOR YOUR PRIESTS WHO HAVE GONE HOME TO ETERNAL LIFE. ALSO YOUR RELATIONS, FRIENDS AND PARISHIONERS.

Sickness

We pray for our sick in our parish:

Daniella DiLisio, Simone Austin, Jacqueline Birnie, Nora McPherson, Mano Subryan, Beryl de Prazer, Diana Pearce, Greg Thomas, Liz Kent, Alan Bailey, Brian Donoghue and Patricia Green.

Our Lady of Lourdes intercede for them.

If there are any changes please let Fr. Leslie know.

PLEASE NOTE THAT IN FUTURE THE NAMES OF ALL THE SICK WILL BE CONTAINED ON A CARD THAT WILL BE PLACED ON THE ALTAR AT EVERY MASS.

PLEASE ALSO NOTE THAT DUE TO DATA PROTECTION REGULATIONS PARISHIONERS WHO ARE SICK NEED TO ASK FR. LESLIE FOR THEIR NAMES TO BE ADDED TO THE LIST.

Anniversaries

We pray for the anniversary of all our relatives and friends, especially those whose anniversary occurs at this time.

We pray for:

Norah Manning, Mary Parker, Bernard Woods, Clementine Schembri, Richard Bohannon, Edith Fairbrother and George Poskitt.

Priests of our Diocese

Fr. Terence Howes (1994), Fr. James Allis (1996) and Canon Denis Petry (1990)

May these and all the faithful departed Rest in Peace and Rise in Glory and Grace.

PLEASE NOTE. NOVEMBER DEAD ENVELOPES ARE AT THE BACK OF THE CHURCH. JUST PLACE THE NAMES OF THE DECEASED YOU WISH TO REMEMBER, PLUS A DONATION, IN THE ENVELOPE AND THEY WILL BE PRAYED FOR DURING NOVEMBER.

Welcome to our parish to all our parishioners and visitors.

It is important to know that from Monday through to Friday there will not be a resident priest at our parish in Ingatestone. Priests from the neighbouring parishes may be asked to help in certain situations.

As you saw from last week's newsletter our Christmas Hamper raffle envelopes are available. This is a major fundraising for our parish. Last year we reached £1,000.00 so it would be great if we could match this again (or even surpass it!). We do have so much maintenance work to do to maintain our property and it all has to be funded from our weekly collection. So we do need your generous help.

Thank you to all who purchased Advent wreaths. They were made by Anna. When we defray her costs the rest of the money will go into our parish funds. We will let you know in due course the amount.

Fr. Leslie has always appreciated the bottles of wine which many people give him at Christmas. Now, for the past two years, Fr. Leslie does not drink because of medication and driving.

One of the themes of today's readings is "I shall be filled with joy when I awake with the sight of your glory". This is a common desire of each one of us. This means to keep before us always the commandments and promises of God to us especially the promise of Eternal Life. This Eternal Life is the life which the dawn of resurrection from the dead will bestow on every soul that keeps sight of God's glory. Without this Eternal Life, the certainty of resurrection from the dead, our faith, and the practice of it, would be meaningless and empty. The death and resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ is a clear affirmation of this truth.

The Season of Advent is almost upon us. This is the time to prepare and reflect on our preparation for the birth of Jesus Christ through the celebration of the Sacrament of Confession, experiencing the gift of God's mercy and forgiveness.

May God's blessing be upon you all and have lovely day with your families and a wonderful week.

November, The Month Of Holy Souls

As we come to the end of the month of the Holy Rosary in October, we now come to the month of November, the month of the Holy Souls. November began last Friday with the upbeat celebration of All Saints. On Saturday 2 November we commemorated the Holy Souls. November has a certain melancholy as we remember our dead. During this month, if we can, we should make a pilgrimage to the place of burial and pray for all who have been buried there. The Church encourages us to gain a Plenary Indulgence for the Holy Souls in Purgatory. To obtain the Plenary Indulgence available in November, we must receive Holy Communion and Sacrament of Confession (and have no attachment to sin). Holy Communion should be received each day to gain the Indulgence for a week. We only need to go to Confession once during this period.

A good prayer to say is "Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them". We must also say one Our Father and one Hail Mary for the intention of our Holy Father. The Bible tells us "it is a wholly and wholesome thought to pray for the dead, that they may be loosed from their sins".

Prayer for the souls in Purgatory is an expression of our Christian charity, and helps us to remember our own mortality.

November Dead envelopes are at the back of the church. Please place a note with the names of those you wish to pray for in the envelope, together with your donation.

Thank you and God bless

Vacancy

St. Peter's Catholic Primary School, Billericay are seeking to appoint a Receptionist/ Administration Assistant. More details can be found on the Essex School Jobs website www.essexschoolsjobs.co.uk/Vacancies/Support Closing date for applications is 6 November 2019.

CAFOD Candlelight Fund

Please do not forget the CAFOD Candlelight Fund for deceased members and friends. Details and leaflets are on the table at the back of the church.

Walk With Me

Walk with me booklets are £1.00 each. Please put the money in the Red Box. These booklets contain a Journey of Prayer for Advent. Through the Liturgy of Advent, the church makes present expectancy of the coming of Jesus. This sense of expectancy and joy is a very real blessing of the season, for we rejoice in Jesus' first coming and renew our desire for his second coming. May it be a happy occasion as Pope Francis tells us.

Providence Row – Homeless

Tom O'Connor, who was with us earlier in the year, will be here on Sunday 1 December to speak about the work that is done at Providence Row, and what they do for so many people who need help. There will be a retiring collection.

Items For Newsletter

Please make sure you let Fr. Leslie know should you wish to place items of news in the newsletter. They can be sent direct to Ian Restall (ian.restall@design-portfolio.co.uk) should you wish, but do please let Fr. Leslie know first. This is Diocesan Policy for which there are good reasons.

Eucharistic Ministers

Thank you for taking Holy Communion to our sick parishioners. However, please return the Holy Communion containers (known as the PYX) to the church after use, unless they are your own. We will need them for other people. Thank you and God bless.

IN TODAY'S GOSPEL

In Jesus' day there were two dominant groups within Jewish society - the Pharisees and the Sadducees. Jesus crossed swords with both of them. Today it is the Sadducees who confront the Lord. The Sadducees were an elite aristocratic group - a kind of club of socially aspirational and religiously conservative men. They rejected most of the Old Testament, accepting only the Pentateuch (the first five books) as divinely inspired. Unlike the Pharisees, they did not believe in the afterlife, the spirit world or the resurrection of the body.

Intent on backing Jesus into a corner, the Sadducees present a bizarre scenario concerning a woman who appears to be something of a Black Widow, in that she has made her way through seven brothers, each of whom died after marrying her. In line with the law and Jewish culture at this time a woman whose husband died was offered future security by marrying any surviving male siblings. The question is, of course, whose wife will she be after death?

Typically, the Lord refuses to answer the question head on. He rather points to the fact that marriage is a human institution which comes to an end with death, "till death do us part". That is not to say that those who are married are not reunited after death - surely they are - but they are reunited in a different way and in a different relationship before God. Beyond the confines of this world there is no need for marriage because both man and wife are joined together in their love and worship of God - in the same way as the angels are.

God is the God of the living, and when we die in Christ we receive the gift of eternal life and our bodies will rise again. This is the central event and a basic truth of our faith. We look to the resurrection as our greatest hope, assuring us of our eternal destiny: Christ in us the hope of glory.

"What is sown is perishable, what is raised is imperishable. It is sown in dishonour, it is raised in glory. It is sown in weakness, it is raised in power. It is sown a physical body it is raised a spiritual body. If there is a physical body, there is also a spiritual body".

The Pope on Twitter

We face this choice many times in our lives: do I accept the Lord's invitation or close myself off in my interests, in my smallness? Let us ask the Lord for the grace always to accept the invitation to His feast, which is free.

Holiness is the fruit of God's grace and of our free response to it. Holiness is a gift and a call.

The #GospelOfTheDay shows us that the merciful gaze of the Lord reaches us before we even realize that we need it to be saved.

Today we remember those who have walked before us, in the hope of meeting them, of reaching the place where we'll find the love that created us and awaits us: the love of the Father.

Please consider volunteering for the many jobs that need doing to help the church run efficiently such as cleaning inside and outside the church, watering plants, perhaps help with flower arranging, washing of the altar linen etc. If you can help at all, please contact Jan Jarvis 200278.

Future of Our Diocese/Parish

Each day please pray to Mary, Our Mother, for an increase in Vocations to the Priesthood and Religious Life. Without a Priest, there would be no Eucharist. Our church is open every day – Come and spend time with Jesus, especially on Fridays between 3.00 p.m. and 4.00 p.m. when we have Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament and also before 6.00 p.m. Mass from 5.00 p.m. until 5.50 p.m. with confessions. Let us go forward together in prayer and discussion to share the Good News of the Gospel with our fellow parishioners.

Altar Servers –

THIS IS URGENT – VERY URGENT

Over the years our parish has been blessed with wonderful, committed Altar Servers. Serving at the Altar is not just a hobby that we do each week. It is part of who we are – following Jesus Christ. Serving at the Altar is a privilege – something we do out of love for him. Let others see what a difference our faith makes to our lives. As Altar Servers let us be a people of faith and strong followers of Jesus, let us respond generously to God's call. We require more Altar Servers at each Mass. Please contact Fr. Leslie.

We need help and we need it now!

History of Our Parish

Our "History of the Parish" books are available at the back of the church. All we require is a donation.

So far we have raised £621.09p to defray the cost of printing, which was around £1,500.

Maybe you should buy one or two for the family as a Christmas present? Or for your friends?

Come And Join Us – Something New

At the last Pastoral Council meeting we suggested that once a month we should have light refreshments in the Parish Hall after the 6.00 p.m. Mass. Please don't be in a hurry to rush off – come and meet one another so that we can get to know one another and enjoy each other's company.

A strong church community will be needed in the future. The refreshments after 6.00 p.m. Mass on a Saturday will be on the first Saturday of each month.

The next one will be on Saturday 7 December. Don't miss it!
