Stewards Of The Gospel

"The important thing in evangelising is not to effortfully set out to try to convert someone, but to live one's faith as a Catholic attractively. It is important to trust that God is working".

Today's feast is set during the reign of King Herod. The journey of the Wise Men is paralleled to the human journey according to Saint Pope John Paul II. Whatever the age, culture or nation, we are always searching for God. Like the Wise men, we too set forth in faith in our desire to draw ever closer to Him. As we celebrate the beginning of a new year, let us in our everyday life, in our families, in our workplace, and whoever we meet, let us unite our hearts to the vision of the Church in proclaiming the light of Christ to the world. As Mary said at the wedding feast at Caná "Do whatever He tells you".

Jesus, on this most Holy Feast, I proclaim you are the light of the world. May I radiate each day your life and light.

I wish you all a Happy New Year and peace among nations is our prayer.

Fr. Leslie

Thank You

Thank you to the whole parish community for all they have done in helping to prepare for our Christmas celebrations this year. Thank you to all our visitors over the Christmas holidays. Thank you to our stewards, servers, readers, eucharistic ministers. On a personal note - I would like to thank you all who sent personal greetings and gifts and for the Christmas collection which forms a major part of my income. A big thank you for that. Thank you also to Andrew Wright and Julia Wilson and Amanada Romhany who enhanced our Christmas Masses. It is always important for the Lord that we try to give him the best as we daily, and at the weekends, offer our poor hearts up to him in sacred music.

Pilgrims of Hope

Pope Francis has designated 2025 as a Jubilee Year under the theme of 'Pilgrims of Hope'.

In feigning to be interested in the birth of the Messiah, Herod reveals his duplicity and cunning. In fact, his heart was bent on extinguishing the light of the world. The Magi on the other hand, were bent on worshipping the light of the world. As we celebrate the beginning of this new year, we unite our hearts to the vision of the Church, which is to proclaim the light of Christ, to the world. We play a vital role in making Christ known - his love, mercy and compassion overwhelm the coldness and extinguish the darkness in our hearts.

Holy Hour

The holy hour of prayer and adoration will take place before the Blessed Sacrament every Sunday afternoon between 3.00 p.m. and 4.00 p.m. with the rosary for Ukraine and peace in our beautiful world.

Gift Aid & Standing Orders

By Gift Aiding your donation it means that for every £1 that you give to our parish, we are able to claim back from HMRC an extra 25p. If you are a Tax Payer, you are able to join our Gift Aid scheme by downloading the Gift Aid form from the parish website www.stjosephshutton.org

The Gift Aid form needs to be returned to the parish office and you will be issued with a Gift Aid number, which you will use whenever you make a donation to the church.

We would also encourage you to consider setting up a standing order to the parish. Standing orders enable us to budget more effectively and they mean that you don't need to bring money with you when you come to Mass, except when we have a second collection. If you email the Parish Office hutton@brcdt.org we will be able to provide you with the sort code and account number, and account name. Or alternatively you can download a standing order form from the parish website, and take this to your bank. Or use the QR codes. Thank you for helping your parish to maintain itself.

God's presence

When a family gathers together for a meal, say grace; i.e. Bless Lord our food which we have received, or a short passage from scriptures. Where two or three are gathered, Jesus is with us. Wherever we go Jesus is always with us. Find time to pray with your children and in the silence experience the stillness and presence of Jesus. When you pass any Catholic Church, make the sign of the cross, to recognize the presence of Jesus, or pay a short visit. Do not lose sight of God's presence.

Prayer to the Sacred Heart.

O Most holy heart of Jesus, foundation of all blessing, I adore you, love you, and with a lively sorrow for my sins. I offer you this poor heart of mine, make me humble, patient, pure and wholly obedient to your divine will. Grant Dear Jesus, that I may live in you and for you. Protect me in the midst of danger. Comfort me in my affliction. Give me heart of body, assistance in my tempered needs, your blessing in all that I do, and the grace of a Holy death. Amen.

Pope on Social Media

Let us #PrayTogether that the Spirit may help us recognize the gift of the different charisms within the Christian communities, and to discover the richness of different ritual traditions within the Catholic Church.

We entrust the new year to the #MotherOfGod. May we consecrate our lives to her. In her tenderness, she knows how to reveal its fullness, because she will lead us to Jesus, the fullness of time, of all ages. May this year be filled with the Lord's consolation.

The world needs to look to mothers and women to find peace, to break free from violence and hatred. Every society needs to respect, protect, and value every woman, aware that whoever harms a single woman profanes God, who was born of a woman.

We all have shortcomings, loneliness, and voids that ask to be filled. When we are tempted to retreat into ourselves, let us go to Mary, Mother of fullness. When we cannot untangle the knots of our life, let us seek refuge in her.

Anniversaries

We pray for the anniversaries of all our relatives and friends, especially those whose anniversary occurs at this time.

We pray for: Catherine Start, Patrick Payne, Mrs. Bunn, Freddie Foster, Jean Vowles, Eric Smith, Florence Margaret Cronin, Gwendoline Thomas, Antoinette Vassey, Ann Morris, James Tobin, Frederick Scaughter, Mary Shaw, and Josephine Millet. Priests of our Diocese: Canon John Bloomfield (1932), and Canon Francis Dobson (1991) May these and all the faithful departed Rest in Peace and Rise in Glory.

Let us never forget our former priests or parishioners. They were part of our parish family. We pray that they will be part of the church triumphant and pray also for holy souls in purgatory the church suffering and for ourselves on our journey the church militant.

Therefore we ask you, when you enter to reverence the Blessed Sacrament, to be silent in prayer as we await the beginning of our celebration. We have a chance to talk and meet one another in the Hall after 10.30 a.m. Mass for refreshments and after 6.00 p.m. Mass on the first Saturday of the month. In your charity, please make a little time to meet one another. Remember to bring the church into the broken world, by your lives of service and good work. We don't bring the world into the church.
