THE LORD HAS REVEALED TO THE NATIONS HIS SAVING POWER

Welcome to all our Parish families today.

I hope more of our parishioners will return to our Sunday Liturgy now that COVID is at its lowest level since last September. Our church is safe thanks to the stewards who help before during the Mass and stay behind to clean the benches. Our Blessed Lord is waiting to nourish you with Himself in the Eucharist as we celebrate the pascal mysteries. Ask yourself if I am able to go to the shops, meet friends for coffee, play sports or travel to see friends then why can't I come to our Sunday Celebration to meet our Lord and Saviour who loves you so very much?

In St. John's second reading and Gospel He says "let us love one another since love comes from God.....Anyone who fails to love can never have known God because God is love". In the Gospel Jesus says to you "As the Father has loved me, so I have loved you. Remain in my love. If you keep my commandments you will remain in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and remain in his love. I have told you this so that my own joy may be in you and your joy be complete".

Let us reflect on the commandment to keep the Sunday holy. Our homes are a holy place. It is in our homes that we come together to pray, reflect on God's word, explaining our faith to our children and showing them the love of God through living good Catholic lives by making sacrifices for one another and keeping the commandments. That is how we remain in his love.

I ask you during the month of May, Our Holy Pope Francis has asked us to pray to Mary each day to end this pandemic. Pray also for our sick and elderly parishioners and all those families who have been affected by COVID-19 especially those who have lost a loved one. May they rest in peace and rise in glory.

I wish you all a blessed weekend and a safe, happy and holy week.

Confessions

On Request (During the COVID 19 Virus)

Remember your Easter duties to receive the sacrament of Reconciliation and Holy Communion between Easter and the Feast of the Most Holy Trinity.

Stewards

Now that we have returned to having public Masses, we will undoubtedly need more volunteers to steward the people attending Mass. Please do give it a thought. It's not a big task - you would be needed to take contact details, show people to their seat, and assist in bringing people up for Holy Communion a bench at a time so that there is no overcrowding in the aisle. Please please help if you can.

Aid to Church in Need

From St. Joseph we must learn... Care and responsibility, we must learn to love the child and his mother, to love the sacraments and charity, to love the church and the poor (Pope Francis).
Should you wish to help the Church in Need
please contact:

Aid to the Church in Need, 10-14 Benhill
Avenue, Sutton, Surrey SM1 4DA.
Tel: 0208 642 8668

A small Direct Debit would be a great help to our suffering Brothers & Sisters.

Reflection from St John Paul II

In the Eucharist we have Jesus, we have his redemptive sacrifice, we have his resurrection, we have the gift of the holy spirit, we have adoration, obedience and love of the Father. Where we to disregard the Eucharist, how could we overcome our own deficiency.

Date For Your Diary

Diocesan pilgrimage to Walsingham will take place virtually on Saturday 29 May -

Plenary Indulgences For The Year of St. Joseph

All this Year until 8 December 2021. You have the opportunity to commit yourself with prayer and good works, to obtain with the help of St. Joseph, head of the heavenly family of Nazareth, comfort and relief from serious human and social tribulations that today affect our world. You can gain a plenary indulgence in the usual conditions i.e. sacramental confession, Holy Communion and a prayer for the Holy Fathers intention. You can do this if you meditate for 30 minutes on the Our Father or a retreat of at least one day that includes a meditation on St. Joseph. St. Joseph invites us to rediscover the filial relationship with the Father.

St. Joseph is the guardian of the Holy Family – may this inspire enthuse and encourage all families to live with the same 'intimate communion' love and prayer, by praying the Holy Rosary in families and engaged couples.

The Angelus

Recited at morning, noon and in the evening. Other than during Eastertide:

V/ The Angel of the Lord declared unto Mary,

R/ And she conceived of the Holy Spirit.

V/ Behold the handmaid of the Lord,

R/ Be it done unto me according to your word.

Hail Mary.

V/ And the Word was made flesh,

R/ And dwelt among us.

Hail Mary.

V/ pray for us, O holy Mother of God,

R/ That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray.

Pour forth, we beg you, O Lord, your grace into our hearts: that we, to whom the Incarnation of Christ your Son was made known by the message of an Angel, may his Passion and Cross be brought to the glory of his Resurrection. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

Terry O'Regan

Terry O'Regan has been discharged from hospital and is now back home recovering. Thank you for all your prayers.

Pope on Twitter

The saints show us that we can praise God always, in good times and in bad, because He is the faithful friend, and his love never fails.

Let us use everything we can, especially the powerful instrument of the media, to build and strengthen the common good

Let us ask our Mother of Heaven to speak to the hearts of all leaders in Myanmar, so that they may find the courage to walk the path of encounter, of reconciliation, and of peace.

To remain in Him is to abide actively and also reciprocally. The branches without the vine can do nothing, they need the sap to grow and to bear fruit; but the vine, too, needs the branches, since fruit does not grow on the tree trunk.

Finance News

200 Club

The 200 Club has been running in our Parish for many years and over that time it has contributed many thousands of pounds to assist with the Parish finances.

It is a relatively painless way of giving, and of course benefits you (hopefully) and the Parish at the same time. All you need to do is to complete a Standing Order form for £2.00 each month and you will be entered into a monthly draw to win cash prizes of up to £50. It's that simple.

Marian will be handing out Standing Order forms at Masses this weekend so please take a moment to take one, complete it and set the process in motion. Cash prizes are just a signature away! What's not to like!
